

Dear Friend of Scouting,

Thank you for your interest in the Elbert K. Fretwell Outstanding Educator Award. The Greater Los Angeles Area Council participates in awarding this distinctive recognition to deserving individuals on behalf of the National Council of Boy Scouts of America.

The Fretwell Award is presented by local Scouters to teachers, educational support staff, and school administrators in the Los Angeles area who stand out from their professional peers in instilling Scouting values in their students. The award is presented in memory of Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, who was a professor of education at Columbia University, an early thinker in the Scouting movement, and the second Chief Scout Executive of the BSA (1943-1948).

An individual working at any level of education, from primary or elementary school to college, may be deserving of this award. It is not exclusively for classroom teachers. Instead, any school employee who is endeavoring to use his or her influence on students to make moral and ethical choices is eligible for the Fretwell Award. This includes teachers, administrators, support staff, resource officers, teaching aides, and others. Unlike other awards presented to outstanding volunteers who serve as registered adult leaders in Scouting, the Fretwell Award is intended to recognize the contribution that educators of diverse responsibilities in schools make to youth through their professional roles. A nominee need not be a registered Scouter.

Anyone who is knowledgeable of a prospective Fretwell awardee may make the initial nomination, as well as be the person to complete the secondary nomination required for consideration. For example, nominations may be made by a candidate's colleague, an administrator, a student, a parent, a school employee who has a different role in the school, current Scouters (registered adult BSA leaders), a faith leader in the community, or others.

The Fretwell Award consists of a certificate and letter of commendation from the Greater Los Angeles Area Council. Often, presentation is made at the recipient's school.

The next page contains the instructions for nominations. We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours in Scouting,

Ross Arnold
